

LTD. ED. SAUVIGNON BLANC 2015

THE CRAFT OF VITICULTURE

Annelie Viljoen (Viticulturist) The grapes were sourced from a low-yielding, trellised block from Christo Blake's farm Libertas, in Stellenbosch. This block is grown on a south-westerly facing slope. The vines were planted in 1992 and the yield varies between 7 to 8 tons per hectare.

THE CRAFT OF VINICULTURE

Deon Boshoff (Cellar Master) / Elize Coetzee (Winemaker) The grapes were harvested by hand at 22° to 23,5° Balling from early to late February. Fermentation took place in a stainless steel tank at 14° and specific commercial yeast was selected to complete fermentation.

THE WINE

CRAFTING CONTEMPORARY CLASSICS

South African wines so often tread the line between the old world and the new and for Zonnebloem's range of award winning wines, this balance between classic and contemporary is ever present. Zonnebloem is a brand that stands for craftsmanship in all its forms. After all craft is at the heart of the winemaking process, from the farms that produce our grapes who use the earth as their canvas to create the fruit which lends our wines their rich, distinctive character; to the winemakers who use the skills they have learned and developed over decades to create the rich varietals and blends that make up the Zonnebloem staple. Our commitment to craft doesn't end with the bottled product, Zonnebloem invests in craftsmen and artisans to ensure that every bottle is presented, and enjoyed, in a way that speaks to the craft that went into its creation.

Since 1856 Zonnebloem has been creating wines that speak to the values of fine craftsmanship. Our award-winning range combines the best of the old and new worlds to ensure that every bottle becomes a modern classic.
